NEW HIGH SCHOOL AND TRUCK HOUSE

Conference Committee Submits Report Last Night To Council.

TO PREPARE PAPERS.

Opposition to Erecting School House at the Site Purchased—Others Adhere to Original Plan.

Most of the business presented at the regular meeting of Council last night was of a general nature, and the volume was comparatively small. There was but little discussion in either board. The members of the Common Council were soon resting on their oars and sent an nvitation to the Board of Aldermen to meet them in joint session for the election of a Police Commissioner from the Second Ward and filling vacancies in the School Board The Aldermen declined the invitation but informed the lower board that they would participate in the election at the next regular meeting.

Board of Aldermen.

All the aldermen, save Mr. Hill (who is indisposed) were present.

The only matter which caused any interchange of opinion was the report of the conference committee on the resolution providing for the erection of a new high school building and an engine and truck house.

Mr. Field, in submitting the report stated that it was the desire of the committee to have the matter recommitted so that ordinances could be prepared providing for the contemplated work.

The report will be found in full in the official proceedings. Substantially it is as follows: Favors the purchase of the property on West street between Cameron and Queen, adjoining that recently acquired by the city at West and Cameron streets for $3,500; favors the erection of a modern engine and truck house on the north side of Prince streets, between Fairfax and Royal; also a high school building at a cost not to exceed $36,000, the same to be placed on the lot recently purchased by the city when it shall have been declared within the city limits, or power to control the same for school purposes shall have been vested in the city by the Legislature; favors the purchase of a lot anywhere within the city limits, acceptable by the School Board and the City Council, provided control of the lot at the northwest corner of Cameron and West streets is not given the city; favors borrowing $50,000 for erection of the school and truck houses, and requests that the report be recommitted to the conference committee in order that ordinances providing for the contemplated work may be prepared.

Mr. Ballenger opposed the adoption of the report or a part of the same—he declaring that nothing definite was provided.

Mr. Field said the committee favored placing the new school building on the lot purchased by the city whenever jurisdiction shall be given the city over that territory.

Mr. Ogden said he did not know the lot was beyond the city limits when he voted for its purchase.

Mr. Summers was in favor of building the school house either in or out of the city. It is, he said, a necessity.

Mr. Ballenger contended that the lot now owned by the city had been acquired for a specific purpose, and he favored its use for that purpose. It would, he said, be impossible to procure such an area for $10,000 or $20,000.

Mr. Ogden said he would sell one within the city limits for $8,000.

Mr. Ballenger urged that the matter be taken from the special committee and referred to the finance committee. He moved the elimination of the words which provided that the school house may be placed on the same lot.

Mr. Field at this juncture took charge of the report and after inserting a proviso to the effect if some other lot would be used provided the legislature did not vest the city with the control of the lot at Cameron and West streets, and in this shape, the report was adopted and recommitted to the conference committee. Mr. Ballenger voted no.

The other matters disposed of caused no debate.

Common Council.

The adoption of the report of the conference committee of city council providing for an expenditure of $50,000 for erection of high school building, the purchase of the lot adjoining one already purchased as a site for a high school, at Cameron and West streets, and the erection of a new house for the Relief Hook and Ladder Company was the most important business which came before the lower branch of the city council last night.

The committee in its report recommends that the matter be referred back to it with instructions to direct the Corporation Attorney to prepare the necessary ordinances to carry out the provisions of the report, and said ordinances to be presented to council from time to time as they may seem advisable.

This report, which is a substitute offered some time ago by Councilman Williams,privedes the city giving notes bearing five per cent interest for $50,000; that City Council shall provide in the appropriation bill $5,000 and interest each and evehy year for a period of ten years, the notes to be retired as they mature.

The money is to be used as follows: $360,00 for the high school; $10,000 for house for Relief Hook and Ladder Company; $3,500 for purchase of lot adjoining one now owned by city at Cameron and West streets as a site for high school.

The committee in its report favors the erection of the high school on lot owned by the city whenever the said property shall be in the corporate limits of the City of Alexandria, or when power to control said property for school purposes is granted by the legislature, or they favor some other lot within the corporate limits, same to be acceptable to the city school board and city council provided "said acquisition or contract is not given to the city."

Councilman Bryan thought the latter sentence rather ambigious. The last portion of the report was then read by Councilman Birrell who explained its meaning.

In the opinion of Councilman Harrison it made little difference inasmuch as the Corporation Attorney would have to prepare separate ordinances covering the entire matter.

Councilman Birrell stated the committee could have separate ordinances drawn but thought it best to ascertain if the report would prove favorable. One committee, he thought, could look after the work more expeditiously.

Councilman Williams desired to know if the ordinances would be referred back to council at the next meeting, whereupon Mr. Birrell replied in the affirmative.

An ordinance presented by Councilman Chauncey requiring all vehicles operating on the streets after dark to display a light and making its violation punishable by a fine of from $1 to $5, which was referred to the street committee, precipitated a short debate.

In the opinion of Councilman Spinks this would work a hardship on the farmers coming here and was calculated to drive them out of the city, and for this reason he was opposed to it. "As a man operating vehicles I am going to vote for it," said Councilman Williams. Councilman Marshall moved it be referred to the joint committee on streets and general laws. He called attention to the big lights used on automobiles which he said were tabooed in Washington, and he thought such action should be taken by the city.

H. D. Kirk, clerk of the School board, submitted a communication setting forth that the terms of G. J. Cox, First Ward; A. H. Thomson, Second Ward; H. D. Kirk, Third Ward; T. C. Howard, Fourth Ward, as members of the Board will expire November 1. At the request of Councilman Williams the aldermen were invited to hold a joint session with Common Council to elect school trustees and a police commissioner from the second ward. Alderman Ogden later appeared from the higher board and stated that the aldermen declined the invitation, saying they would take up the election at its November meeting.

A resolution of Councilman Smith that the Light Committee take up with the Alexandria County Lighting Co.,the question of installing improved street lights similar to light now at King and St. Asaph street, and that the Street Committee report if the lighting company is complying with its contract.

An invitation was received from the Anti-Tuberculosis Society to attend an illustrated lecture Thursday evening at the Young Peoples Building which will be delivered by Alexander Johnson, of Vineland N. J., who w take for his subject "The Mother State and Her Weaker Children."

Other matters disposed of follow: Petition for gas main, Henry between Queen and Oronoco streets, passed; petition for gas main on Commerce, between Prince and Duke streets, adopted; resolution of Councilman Chauncey appropriating $150 for three street crossings at Duke and Columbus streets, passed; resolution that light committee place improved arc lights at Cameron and Pitt and Washington and Cameron streets, referred to light committee; permission granted William Campbell to make certain alterations and additions to house 216 South Washington street; petition for gas light on Duke, between West and Peyton streets, referred to light committee; request of H. T. Beach & Bro., to erect frame shed with metal roof on Princess, between Fairfax and Royal streets, referred to street committee; Jonah Bernheimer granted permission to erect frame shed in rear of 110 South Lee street; the sum of $300 appropriated for pipe sewer on Commerce between Prince and Duke streets to connect with house 333 Commerce street.

MEETING OF THE GRAND CHAPTER

Interesting Address by The Grand High Priest, Sol Cutchins.

GRAND COMMANDERY.

Ninety-First Annual Conclave of The State Will Assemble in Richmond Tomorrow.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 29.—The grand annual convocation of the Grand Royaly Arch Chapter of Masons convened in its 106th session in the Masonic Temple last night, and listened to the address of the grand high priest, Sol Cutchins, which was followed by reports of officers and committees. The first meeting was by way of a preliminary session, as the main business of the convocation comes today and after.

The Grand Council of Annointed High Priests convenes this afternoon to confer the Holy Order of High Priesthood on such companions as may be entitled to the honor, and for the annual election of officers, under the direction of ex-President William J. Hubbard.

The Washington Royal Arch Chapter, No. 9, of this city, will entertain the officers and members of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Virginia at dinner in the Temple at 6:30 o'cdlck tonight. The welcome will be extended by George W. Poe, grand Treasurer, a member of the Washington Chapter, and a past grand high priest, and will be responded to by James E. Alexander, of Alexandria, assistant grand lecturer, and a past grand high priest.

After the closing of the grand chapter, the ninety-first grand annual conclave of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Virginia will open its sessions tomorrow, beginning at 10 o'clock. At 7 o'clock tomorrow night officers and members of Richmond Commandery No. 2, and the Commandery of St. Andrew, No. 13, will assemble at the armory in the Temple and act as escort to the grand commander and the officers of the Grand Commandery of Virginia from the Jefferson Hotel to the Masonic Temple, accompanied by such members of the grand commandery as may be present.

ADDRESS BY CHARITIES EXPERT

The results of weak-minded girls being left without a guardian are almost unbelievable. Many interesting facts regarding these cases are being told by Dr. Alexander Johnson,on the tour he is now making throughout Virginia. Dr. Johnson will give an interesting lecture at the Young Peoples building on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. The lecture is complimentary one and the public is extended a most cordial invitation to attend.

POWER OF THE ARC LIGHTS.

Resolution Inquiring Into Cost of Type Recently at King and St. Asaph Streets.

The committee on light of the City Council had referred to them last night a resolution introduced by Councilman Smith which is as follows:

Resolved, That the committee on light be requested to take up with the County Lightning Company the matter of installing improved street lights in the place of the lights at present in use and similar to the light recently in use at the corner of King and St. Asaph streets, and that the light committee be requested to report whether the lights in use at present comply with the lighting company's contract and franchise with the city.

The light referred to was placed at the intersection of King and St. Asaph streets some time ago, and its power and brilliancy attracted general attention.

The fact that vehicles pass through the streets at night without lights has often been commented upon, and last night Councilman Chauncey introduced an ordinance, which was referred to the committees on streets and general laws, providing that in future all vehicles appearing on the streets after dark must be provided with lights. A penalty of one to five dollars is provided for any infraction of the law.

KILLED ENGINEER.

Southern Railway Train Derailed in South Carolina.

The derailment of a south-bound Southern Railway passenger train near Easley, S. C., late Monday afternoon caused the death of Engineer B. J. Voyles and serious injuries to the fireman, C. C. Kelley. The baggage master and express messenger were also slightly hurt, but no report has been received as to any serious injuries to passengers.

That more serious consequences did not follow the derailment is considered remarkable in view of the fact that the engine, mail car, baggage car and three passenger coaches left the track. The engine is thought to have overturned, crushing Engineer Voyles and his fireman. It is understood that the other cars remained upright and that the slight injuries to the others of the train crew were due to being hurled against projections in the cars.

DESCRIBES BUSCH FUNERAL.

August Brill Tells of Wonderful Floral Offerings.

August Brill ,of Washington, formerly a resident of this city, and brother of Jacob Brill, has returned from St. Louis where he attended the funeral of Adolphus Busch which took place on last Saturday. He describes the funeral as remarkable because of the tributes from all over the United States and abroad.

The Busch residence, in which the funeral services were held was literally a bower of flowers, no fewer than twenty-five truck loads of blossoms and floral pieces, valued at $100,000 having been sent alike by rich and poor.

For two hours the house was open to the employes, and in that time, 5,000, headed by the brewery officials, passed through the doors, and then mingled with an enormous crowd outside, estimated at 25,000 persons. When the casket had been closed by members of the Frank Blair Post G. A. R., of which Mr. Busch was a member, it was draped with an American flag.

At 1 o'clock the service began with music that had been selected by Mr. Busch himself some months ago. Chas. Nagel, former secretary of commerce and Labor, delivered an eulogy and prayers were recited by the Rev. Jno. W. Day, pastor of the Unitarian Church of the Messiah. For five minutes, while this service was in progress, all the street cars were stopped and business was suspended throughout St. Louis.

At the cemetery an oration was delivered by Congressman Richard Bartholdt, who had been one of Mr. Busch's closest friends.

BATTLE ABBEY IS NEARLY COMPLETE

Many Tourists Visit Confederate Memorial Institute.

CONCEIVED BY ROUSS.

Will be a Mecca—Work of Mural Decorations Delayed by Indisposition of Artist.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 29.—In the Confederate Memorial Institute—better known as the Battle Abbey—Richmond will have another attraction that will not only be the pride of its own citiens,but will be the mecca of thousands of visitors to this city. The handsome structure situated on the Boulevard, between Stuart Avenue and Kensington street, is now nearing completion. The exterior has been finished, and with the grounds rapidly assuming shape, the place is tracting much attention from tourists and other visitors. Another year, however, will probably elapse before its formal opening.

The conception of such a memorial building had its origin in the big brain and larger heart of Charles Broadway Rouss, who, for four years, was a private in one of the noted Cavalry regiments of the Army of Northern Virginia. It was at the Confederate reunion in Houston, Texas, in 1895, that he made his first formal proposal to give $100,000 for such a structure, providing an equal amount was raised in the South.

The institute is built of Indiana sandstone of simple, but imposing architecture. It is extremely plain in design, the whole idea leaning toward an impressive simplicity. The building faces on the Boulevard. The front, which is extremely severe in design, is relieved by a mammoth entrance, faced by four marble pillars. There are narrow windows on either side of the entrance. There are several windows in the rear, but the main lighting comes from the roof. The beautiful bronze doors at the entrance are about completed.

The interior will be most attractive. The south wing will be known as Memorial Hall. On its wall will be handsome mural paintings depicting the various branches of the Confederate service. A numbers of panels will also be decorated with paintings illustrating scenes in the Confederate navy. Among the various designs will appear figures of the most illustrious generals and leaders of the Confederacy.

It will be about a year before it will be completed. Thomas Fortune Ryan contributed the whole cost of the mural decorations.

OFF AFTER THE PARTRIDGES.

Messrs. Herbert A. Rose and W. B. Herring, of the Southern Railway Company, will leave on Friday for their annual hunting expedition to the upper counties. These gentlemen are well-known crackshots. They do not put on extra style as to fancy accoutrements—hunting suits, etc.,—but go about the matter in a business-like manner. They go after birds, and they get birds. Last season one of them was taken ill and had to quit the field for a day, and this bag at the close of the hunt showed some fifty birds, more or less, behind the usual number. But they will doubtless make up the difference this trip.

RETURN OF THE PRESIDENT.

Makes Stop at Charlottesville and Greets Students.

President Wilson rolled into Washington at 10:30 o'clock last night from Mobile, Ala., with his private car laden with tobacco, floral wreaths, and loving cups, tributes from his Southern admirers, who flocked to the stations on the route, cheering him as he went by.

At Charlotte, N. C., Governor Craig and a bevy of frock-coated aids rushed through the car, grabbed the President's hand and jumped off. At Evington, Va., a way station, the President alighted and took a little stroll, climbing into the engine cab with the engineer, N. S. Hunter. As he was leaving, Hunter, blushing with delight, said:

"You have to back out of an engine cab, Mr. President."

"I never back out of anything," responded the President, negotiating the steps face forward.

As he approached his car a group of women rushed forward, crying that they wanted one of the flowers that were massed against the windows as a "remembrance." The President gallantly ordered that the big basket of chrysanthemums and roses be given to them.

The train stopped at Charlottesville last night long enough for the chief executive to greet six hundred students from the University of Virginia, his alma mater. An invitation was formally extended him to attend the Vanderbilt-Virginia football game there on Saturday.

"I thank you, gentlemen, and appreciate the invitation," was all the response those nearest the car could hear, for the crowd of more than 1,000 broke loose in a rousing cheer, and before it ended the train pulled out.

At Culpeper, Va., Dr. Cary Grayson, had the humiliation of his life. Culpeper is his native heath, and the President, out of courtesy, made the only extra stop of the trip there. Of the 2,201 inhabitants just one lounged out of the depot enclosure, marveling that at last a regular train had stopped there. He caught a glimpse of Dr. Grayson surveying the station and the general store from the platform of the President's car.

"Hello, Doc!" he yelled, dashing up to the car.

Dr. Grayson beamed and introduced the President to Cooney Hamsborough, a boyhood companion. Cooney was so astonished he just gasped.

"There's a great fellow," said the doctor. "He has a sad end awaiting him, though. Every Christmas he manages to break some part of his anatomy, and now he hasn't anything but his neck left. He's got to either breaks that Christmas or forego a long-established custom."

EUROPE'S STAND TOWARDS MEXICO

Will Vie With United States In Bringing About Peace.

HUERTA MAY RETIRE.

Disappointed by Lack of Support From Eastern Powers, Leader Said To Be About to Resign.

Washington, Oct. 29.—President Wilson began this morning the preparation of a statement which he will make to the powers of Europe regarding the future policy of the United States with respect to Mexico. With indications that these powers are willing to subscribe to any practicable plan which the Administration might propose for the re-establishment of peace and order in Mexico, there is likelihood that Huerta will be compelled to relinquish the office of ruler.

Relying of the support of Europe, it is believed that Huerta may be prevailed up on to retire, and epmit the United States, through the power of "moral suasion" referred to by President Wilson in his Mobile speech, to assist a new government to restore order. Otherwise it is probable that Europe will insist on armed intervention by the United States.

President Wilson conferred early today with Secretary of State Bryan. He will also call into consultation Chairman Bacon, of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, who has shown particular interest in the attitude of the European powers and other advisers upon whom he has been depending in handling the Mexican problem.

Tragedy Occurs on Farm of Roosevelt"s Brother-in-Law.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 29.—William D. C. Robertson, 52 years old, was killed by an infuriated bull yesterday afternoon on the farm of Douglas Robinson, brother-in-law of Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Robertson had been caretaker at the Robinson summer home for 25 years. The bull had escaped from its pen, and in attempting to drive it back, the man was attacked. He was crushed against the side of the pen, and death was almost instanteneous.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings in Society.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Gatewood, daughter of Medical Director James Duncan Gatewood, U. S. N., and Mrs. Gatewood, and Lieut. Earl North, U. S. A., which was to have taken place this afternoon at St. Margaret's Church, Washington, with all the brilliancy of a military ceremony, was solemnized quietly yesterday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gatewood, in the presence of a small family party. The change was made because of the sudden and critical illness of the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Robert Gatewood, of Norfolk, Va. The Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of St. Margaret's Church, officiated at the ceremony, which took place at 3:30 o'clock. The bride was given in marriage by her father, who left shortly after the ceremony for Norfolk.

The bridal gow nwas of hilda satin, the upper part of tulle, embroidered in pearls, with a tunic of princess lace and a court train. Her veil was a flimsy mesh of Paris make, and was fastened to her hair with a spray of orange blossoms. She wore a necklace of pearls which were worn both by her mother and grandmother, and carried a shower of lilies of the valley and roses. The attendants' gowns were of white charmeuse, with draped skirts and tunics of net. Jackets of engineer red satin, edged with brown fur, and hats of white tulle sprayed with crimson rambler roses completed these charming costumes. They carried showers of Richmond roses. The bridegroom, the bride's father, and the ushers wore their uniforms.

Lieut. North and his bride left Washington later in the day, and after two weeks they will be at home at West Point, where Lieut. North is stationed.

The bride's gifts to her attendants were pins which she had made in Florence during her recent travels abroad. They were topazes, her birthstone, in an Etruscan setting.

Dr. and Mrs. Gatewood with their three daughters formerly resided in this city, and a large party of Alexandrians had anticipated attending the wedding and reception.

Judge J. K. M. Norton has returned from New York where he attended the General Convention of the Episcopal Church.

Miss Pauline J. Shoemaker, of Marlington, W. Va., and Harry L. Gard, of Cincinnati, Ohio, were married yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. J. F. Hibbs, aunt of the bride, 323 south St. Asaph street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Cards have been received in this city from Mr. Robert Mantell Edwards announcing the marriage of his sister, Miss Mary Marguerite Edwards, to Mr. Reuben Quinn Fulton, Wednesday evening, October 22nd, at half-after nine o'clock at 305 Gray street, Danville Virginia. The bride is a sister of Mr. J. E. Edwards, of this city.

VESSEL PASSES IN CAPES

Schooner Annie F. Angell Believed to Have Paris Gowns Aboard

Believed to have $100,000 worth of Paris gowns on board which she is trying to smuggle into this country, the three-masted schooner Annie F. Angell, long overdue from Nova Scotia, passed in the Virginia Capes yesterday apparently unconcerned over the fact that an agent of the Treasury Department had been at sea ten days waiting and watching for her.

The Angell passed in the Virginia Capes at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, was met by the tug M. Mtchell Davis, of Washington, and towed up the bay. No government official boarded the schooner at the Capes so far as could be learned, although it is unofficially reported that there was an agent of the Treasury Department on the Davis, and that several more would meet the vessel when she reached Alexandria, to which port she is bound.

The Angul left some port in Nova Scotia over a month ago. She cleared with a cargo of phosphate rock. The Treasury Department learned, it is alleged, that she had a large number of Paris gowns or material for them hidden in her hold which had not been listed in her clearance papers. Two men were sent from the Treasury Department, and they were quartered on the pilot boat Relief, which is at anchor off the Virginia Capes. One of the agents became sick and had to be sent bacn to Washington. Agent Crump remained for ten days. His mission was up yesterday when the Angell entered the Capes.

The schooner is reported to have put in at Vineyard Haven on October 13. Many people do not believe the vessel has any French gowns on board, and she has had plenty of time to get rid of them if she had them when she left Nova Scotia.

DEATH OF J. H. MILSTEAD.

Well-Known Resident Passes Away in Washington This Morning.

John H. Milstead, for many years a resident of Alexandria, died in Washington at an early hour this morning. The deceased was 71 years old. He is survived by a widow and seven children—John, Bruce, Wilton and Mahlon Milstead, and Mrs. J. E. Shinn, Mrs. Grace Talbot and Mrs. Marguerite Fisher.

Mr. Milstead was born at Occoquan, Prince William county, he having been a son of William Milstead.

In early manhood he was a resident of Laurel, Md., but removed to Alexandria over forty years ago. He was a woodworker and engineer by profession, and was at one time employed by Aitcheson Bros., and later at the Portner Brewery. When the electric railway between this city and Mount Vernon had been completed he became engineer at the power house at New Alexandria. He recently became the engineer at a laboratory at Benning.

The remains of the deceased will be brought to this city and the funeral will take place on Friday.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

VIRGINIA'S FEE SYSTEM.

State Auditor C. Lee Moore Says They Are Not Large.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 29.—Discussing the matter of fees for state officers, Auditor C. Lee Moore, the State's chief fiscal officer today prepared the following statement:

"So far as I can recall, officers located in the counties and cities of this State do not receive unreasonable or exorbitant fees out of the treasury under the laws of this state, Virginia has, in my opinion, just cause to be proud of her officers throughout the Commonwealth. They are faithful in the performance of their duties, and their compensation in fees is moderate. I do not suppose there is another state in the Union more favored in this respect. I believe a large majority of the officers now receiving fees out of the State treasury would prefer their compensation should be provided by an annual salary, but as the fiscal officer of the State I would say that in my opinion it would be unfair and unjust, both to the Commonwealth and to the officers, to change the present system without careful and thorough investigation.

"Clerks of courts, treasures, sheriffs, sergeants and constables have responsible duties to perform, and for some of these officers training and experience is absolutely essential. Some of them do not perform ordinary clerical work, and if put upon a salary basis the salary to be paid should not be considered from a merely clerical standpoint.

"The commissioners of the revenue are today rendering better service than they have ever rendered the State. They are better informed respecting their duties under the law, and are more faithful and energetic in performing those duties.

"I am unable to speak with reference to the fees collected by officers from individulas for services rendered them, but it does occur to me that those fees should be paid by the parties interested rather than be made a charge upon the entire community by putting the officer upon a salary basis. Persons who litigate should bear the expense of litigation, and should not be permitted by law to shift a portion of that burden upon those not interested or concerned."

Auditor Moore had been asked regarding certain recent erroneous publications. Recently it was stated that the clerk of the Suprme Court of Appeals got $25,000 a year. Mr. Jones, the clerk, expresses a cheerful willingness to accept a one-third of that sum for his services and to pay his deputies. It was also stated that judges of the Suprme Court of Appeals received $10,000 a year. They receive one-half that sum.

"Important point in the matter which the public appears to have entirely lost sight of," said Mr. Moore today, is that the sheriffs, sergeants, clerks and treasurers, have to employ men to assist in the work they do, and the work is of such character that it cannot be done by men who are to be caught up on the corner. The expenses of some of these officers are very heavy, there being several deputies and assistants in many of the offices named."

TRIAL OF THREE BROTHERS.

Gloom Settles Down Upon Oswold Gray Slayers.

Luray, Va., Oct. 29.—As the day approaches for the trial of the three brothers—Thomas, Emanuel and Leo Alger—charged with the murder of Oswald Gray in the county on the 8th of August, imperetrable goom is settling over the three prisoners confined in steel cages in the Luray jail.

The apparent unconcern that has characterized the boys since the day they went behind the gloomy prison walls is being replaced by a consciousness of the seriousness of the crime of which they are charged.

Uncouth, unlettered, seldom, if ever in their lives having attended a Sunday School or preaching, the boys are now attended two or three times each week by Rev. Churchill Gibson, of the Episcopal Church.

Though never having been made public, it is said that one of the boys—Thomas Ager—has confessed that he slew Gray on a path in the Blue Ridge one night while the party was returning from a religious meeting near the line between Page and Madison counties. This confession, it is said, will be made when he is placed on trial this week in the Page county court. It will embrace all the details of the mountain tragedy, outlining the particulars leading up to it, and concluding with the fact that the killing was done in self-defense. In this he will be substantiated by the testimony of the two other brothers and that of Misses Lily Berry and Lula Sisk and William Coatney and wife, all of whom were present when the deed was committed.

To combat this the evidence of Raymond Gray, late of Amherst county, will be introduced by the Commonwealth.

OLD ORDER BOOK PRESERVED.

Virginia Editor Tells of Record of the War of 1812.

The Star Spangled Banner centennial Commission is turning up a lot of local history connected with the War of 1812, not only in Maryland, but in other States.

In a letter to the commission yesterday Lewis S. Pendleton, editor of the Central Virginian, says:

"There is an old order book preserved in the Louisa Clerk's office, which was kept by the adjutant of the local militia which was called out to repel the British in case they advanced on Richmond. I might also add in this connection that my grandfather, Edmund Pendleton, was colonel of the Louisa militia."

LITTLE GIRL ATTACKED.

Peanuts and Candy Offered to Lure Her Away.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 29.—The conditions of Little Florence Crishan, who was the victim Sunday of one of the most heinous crimes ever perpetrated on the peninsula, is somewhat improved. The child, who is only seven years old, was the victim of an attempted criminal assault at the hands of a white man about 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Every effort has been made by the police to capture the assailant, but to no avail.

The child, who told a well connected and straight forward story, said that she and one of her little friends were playing on the Casino Sunday morning, when an unknown white man came up, and called her. She went to him, and on being promised peanuts and candy, followed him to the southern end of West avenue and across the railroad tracks. It was there that the attempt to ill treat her was made.

The child said that she screamed and fought but no one came to her assistance. She was finally brought back to the street through an unfinished building, where she was left by her assailant.

Almost exhausted and staggering at every step, she made her way home.

BLAST ON WARSHIP.

One Man Probably Fatally Injured in Explosion on the New Jersey.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 29.—Hemmed in by flames in the foundry room of the battleship New Jersey last night, when a gasoline tank exploded, one man received burns that probably will result in his death. Two others are in the ship's hospital suffering from minor burns.

One of the seamen is said to have been holding a torchlight near the gasoline drum. The tank exploded. One man was unable to make his way through the door, and was not taken from the room util the fire had been put out. The other two jumped into Hampton Roads, and were picked up the New Jersey's launch.

According to a courier, who has arrived at Trinidad, Col., fifteen mine guards were killed and three strikers wounded in the battle yesterday morning at Hastings and Berwind, near Ludlow. The shooting began at 4 o'clock, wth more than 11,200 armed miners in the field. The miners, the courier stated, surrounded the tents occupied by the guards and began pouring a steady rifle fire into them.

"ICH GEBIBBLE'" HITS THE MARK.

"Every few years, about as regular as the roller skating craze, a new slang expression springs up and in the course of a short time sweeps across the country, with a growth that is as mysterious as its origin,' says the Halifx Gazette. A few years ago "Skiddoo was on nearly every tongue and nearly every postcard, vanishing after a while as quickly as it had come. Today the slogan of the slangist is "Ich Gebibble," or in plain United States, "I should worry!"

Long in use among the German-speaking people of the land, it has but recently come to the front through the efforts of the cartoonists and vaudevillians until now go where you will, sooner or later you'll hear it.

Like many other German idioms it means just the opposite of what it says, and is in reality less than two inches of concentrated sarcasm depending on the size type used. And, looking at it from that angle, why wouldn't it make a good motto for anybody? "I should not worry," try living up to that for a week, and see how much better you'll feel, and how much smoother things will run.

"Care killed the cat," but for every feline victim care and worry can claim a hundred human ones. Don't worry—what's the use? The check you expected in the morning's mail failed to show up; will worrying get it any sooner? Your new suit doesn't fit, or the horse you bought last week isn't quite as young as you thought; will either one of them be benefited by your worrying? Not a chance, to use another rather expressive bit of slang.

If you find the milk has got to spill, don't cry over it; smile, and, as if you owned the biggest dairy in the world say, "Ich Gebibble."

UNDERWOOD'S HARD FIGHT.

Reports from Alabama indicate that Repreesntative Oscar Underwood, who is a candidate for the United States Senator, is having a hard fight on his hands in endeavoring to combat Representative Richard P. Hobson, who is his opponent.

Representative Hobson is said to have a complete organization throughout the State and has been campaigning with unusual vigor for some time and will continue to make a whirl wind speech-making tour of the counties, his strength being chiefly in the rural sections. Mr. Hobson is making an appeal to the temperance sentiment, and is said to be strong with that element in the rural sections. Whether or not he can hold that strength and vote it when the temperance cause is nowhere an issue and when the sentiment of the country is almost unanimously in Underwood's favor on his merits as a constructive statesman with a long and honored career remains to be seen.

Mr. Underwood has avowed his intention ofe remaining at his post of duty in Washington, until the extra session of Congress adjourns, and if he does, he will be handicapped, for his rival is busy and is said to be an effective campaigner. While Underwood's friends are doing all they can to promote his prospects, it would be a sad comentary upon popular government if this brilliant Alabamian shold be defeated for the Senate by a man in no way comparable with him in equipment, ability and achievement and without his large experience and sound judgment.

FATAL PISTOL BATTLE.

Two Brothers Killed and a Brother-in-Law Wounded.

Barksdale, S. C., Oct. 29.—Ernest and Hunt Sharp, brothers, were killed an the former's brother-in-law, Corneulius Edwards, seriously wounded in a pistol battle near this place Monday. Edwards is under arrest. Disagreement over family matters is said to have been the cause of the clash, which occurred when the three men met on a country road this afternoon. After several shots had been exchanged, Ernest Sharp received a pistol bullet in his heart. His brother was wounded a few minutes afterward and died an hour later. Edwards' wounds are not believed to be fatal.

Edwards is 21 years old and Ernest and Hunt Sharp were aged 21 and 18 years, respectively.

GLASS TO REPLY TO BANKERS.

Announces Intention of Answering Objections Made by Norfolk Delegation.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—Representative Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, will answer the Virginia Bankers in a speech to be delivered at Richmond within the next two weeks.

Mr. Glass states he intended to accept the invitation of the Richmond Business Men's Association to make an address on the pending currency legislation. At the time he will reply to the criticisms of the Glass-Owen bill, which were laid before the Virginia senators a week ago by a committee of Virginia bankers, headed by Caldwell Hardy, of Norfolk.

NEBROES IN A ROW.

Tries to Convince Alleged Thief He Wouldn't Depart.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Harry McLean, colored, of Cristfield, Va., early last night pulled a revolver out of his coat pocket to convince William Newkirk, of Forestville, Va., that he could not prevent him from taking the Steamer Southland for Norfolk.

Newkirk came to town yesterday along with Luther Logan, to 'shadow' McLean, whom Newkirk claims stole a $10 bill from him. McLean was traced to the Norfolk boat wharf. When he presented a $10 bill for a ticket to Norfolk, Newkirk grabbed the money. McLean, according to the police, pulled a revolver. There was a merry scramble among wharf hands and passengers to get behind places of protection. Newkirk managed to hands. McLean then ran with Newknock the revolver from McLean's kirk and Logan after him.

DON'T OVERLOOK THIS.

A Careful Perusal Will Prove Its Value to Every Alexandria Reader.

The average man is a doubter, and there is little wonder that this is so. Misrepresentations make people skeptics. Now-a-days the public ask for better evidence than the testimony of strangers. Here is proof which should convince every Alexandria reader.

Miss Harriett Johnson 207 Queen St., Alexandria, Va., says: "For two years I had a lot of trouble from my back. As long as I kept still, I got along all right, but as soon as I began to work.I was bothered terribly by backache. A neighbor gave me a box of Doans Kidney Pills, procured from Lea beater & Co.'s drug store, and they cured me. I have had no symptoms of kidney complaint during the past few years. I willingly confirm my former endorsement."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the kind that Miss Johnson had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Words of Praise

For Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy

"How thankful we are to you for getting a bold of your Wonderful Remedy. My wife could not have had but a short time to live if she had not taken your Wonderful Remedy when she did. One more of those paroxysm pains she was having would have killed her without a doubt. Now she is free from all pain, free from heart trouble and free from that disturbing Neuralgia—all the results of five treatments—and the expulsion of five or six hundred Gall Stones. Now she is able to eat anything she wants and her appetite is good and before taking your medicine she had no appetite and when she ate anything she would suffer death for so doing and could not sleep at night; since taking your treatment she sleeps well all night long. T. A. Neall, Roanoke, Texas."

The above letter should convince you more than anything we could say in behalf of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. Sufferers should try one dose of this Remedy—one dose should convince them that they can be restored to health. Nearly all Stomach Ailments are caused by the clogging of the intestinal tract with mucoid and catarrhal accretions allowing poisonous fluids into the Stomach and otherwise deranging the digestive system. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy painlessly removes these accretions without a surgical operation and puts an end to Colic Attacks, Gases in the Stomach and Intestines and all of the usual symptoms of Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments. Ask your druggist about Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. A policeman saved both from serious and perhaps fatal injuries. After they had been served with a summons to appear in court, the police held the mob at bay while the clergymen drove away in their car.
